

COMING IN 2023!

Please join us for a RACE-certified webinar series

PRESENTER: Leilani Alvarez, DVM, DACVSMR

Dr. Alvarez is director of integrative and rehabilitative medicine at the Schwartzman Animal Medical Center in New York City. In addition to running a busy integrative and rehabilitation practice, Dr. Alvarez frequently speaks at conferences, leads a traditional canine sports med/rehab residency program, teaches interns and residents, and has published peer-reviewed articles and book chapters. She holds certifications in veterinary acupuncture, canine rehabilitation and advanced Chinese herbal medicine, and her research interests include geriatric medicine, joint supplements, muscle physiology and evidence-based medicine.
